

Couples Tandem Training

Two partners. Two massage beds. Separate volunteer receivers. One shared learning experience.

£1,600 PER COUPLE

Foundation-level private tuition | 6 hours over two days, or a condensed 5-hour day by request

Both partners learn simultaneously, each giving a full-body sensual massage to a different volunteer on massage beds positioned side by side. Colin guides the training, with individual feedback and shared teaching throughout.

Learn Side by Side

Unlike the Couples Foundation course, where partners massage one another, Tandem Training allows both partners to develop their giving skills at the same time with independent volunteer receivers. Each can learn to respond to a different person, while sharing the experience and comparing what they discover.

What You Will Learn

- Confident full-body sensual massage: touch, pressure, rhythm and flowing transitions.
- Understanding individual preferences, male and female arousal, and sensual anticipation.
- Creative foreplay, body awareness and adapting technique to the receiver.
- Clear consent, comfortable communication and responding to feedback.
- How to carry your new skills into intimate experiences together.

Volunteer Receivers & Format

Four volunteer receiver places are arranged across the two teaching sessions. Choose the preferred gender mix according to your interests, subject to availability and the volunteers' agreed boundaries.

- Four male volunteer receivers.
- Four female volunteer receivers.
- A mixed-gender selection of male and female receivers.

Each partner works with a separate receiver on an adjacent massage bed. The practical programme is supported by explanations, demonstrations and personal guidance from Colin. Every volunteer chooses their level of participation and may pause or stop at any time.

Your Course & Booking

The recommended format is two 3-hour sessions on different days, giving time to absorb and practise the techniques. By prior arrangement, the training can instead be delivered as one condensed 5-hour session on a single day.

Included in Your Training

- Personal tuition, demonstrations and supervised practice for both partners.
- Four volunteer receiver places across the two-session format, subject to availability.
- PDF course materials and access to relevant video tutorials.
- A course completion certificate for each partner.
- Private teaching venue near Sloane Square, Chelsea; oils and towels provided.
