Discover the pleasure of giving

An Experiential Session is a relaxed, personally guided introduction to the art of sensual massage. After a conversation about your aims, preferences, health considerations and boundaries, Colin Richards demonstrates techniques and guides your hands as you give a tailored massage alongside him. The pace and touch are shaped around the receiver's comfort and ongoing consent. There is no routine to memorise or pressure to progress. Time afterwards allows rest, reflection and discussion of next steps.

Adults aged 18+ | Session details and current fee confirmed before booking.

A guided session, at your pace

Colin works alongside you, guiding the massage from preparation through to a calm, unhurried close.

HOW THE SESSION UNFOLDS

BEFORE

Talk and prepare

Discuss your aims, health considerations, preferences, clothing and boundaries. The receiver's wishes are part of the plan.

DURING

Give together

Colin demonstrates and guides your hands, pressure and pace as you give a tailored massage alongside him.

AFTER

Rest and reflect

Take time to settle, share what you noticed and discuss whether you would like to explore further training.

No routine to memorise

Follow the receiver's comfort. There is no pressure to progress.

A shared experience, shaped around comfort and consent.

A session shaped around the receiver

There is no set performance or outcome. Colin adapts the experience to the giver's confidence and the receiver's comfort, with conversation and consent guiding each step.

NOTICE WHAT FEELS GOOD

Explore the effect of pressure, rhythm, stillness and flowing touch, while listening to the receiver's feedback.

MOVE AT YOUR OWN PACE

Begin with comfortable massage and deepen the sensory quality only when both people want to.

KEEP CHOICE CENTRAL

Either person can pause, redirect or stop. Arousal or a physical response never counts as consent to another touch.

A TASTER, NOT A QUALIFICATION

The session offers a supported first experience; it does not require memorising a routine or lead to a qualification.

Arrange your Sensual Sisters session

Contact Colin to discuss your aims, receiver arrangements, availability, current fee and booking terms. The details are confirmed together before a date is agreed.
